

Our Process for Business

Initial Consultation on Site – We will meet with you at your location and together determine where your needs are, how we can help and develop an attack list of things to address as we move forward. If we determine that we can assist you in your business, we will schedule an appointment to begin our process

First Appointment – At our first appointment, we will spend time gathering detailed information regarding your business, meet with your team members if appropriate and being to establish a plan to address the issues that you feel you need assistance with. The amount of time we spend on this appointment we be dependent upon the areas that we are trying to address.

Follow Up Appointment – At the end of our initial appointment, we will schedule a follow- up appointment or appointments to continue to coach and counsel and assist with the implementation of the changes we identify.

Continuing Assistance - We are available for additional coaching and counseling as long as necessary to enable you to accomplish your goals and win financially in your business.

Remember, most of what we do in live is done by habit. Our goal is to develop habits that will enable you to not only win in business, but in life as well.
